REMEMBER?

by TERRY FORLENZA

A BRIGHT Monday morning, the sun shining, our faces scrubbed clean, and nothing in our hearts except the excitement of our new adventure! We were entering the portals of East Side High School! Little did we realize then that a war-torn world would be awaiting our graduation in June, 1945. Nevertheless, we HAVE managed to have our fun. It would take more than the threat of secret weapons and a manpower shortage to dampen our spirits. Yes, sad as they have been, the years have not been without their brighter moments.

Do you remember our freshman year and how we searched in vain for that elevator? And it wasn't long before we became well acquainted with Miss Kraemer and Mr. Lumb. Time flew; and, before we realized it, our first exams loomed before us. Weren't we relieved to see those summer holidays finally arrive!

Then, all of a sudden, no longer were we "Freshies" but full fledged Sophomores—except in a subject or two—; and little did we care that the Seniors referred to us as "Saps."

Summer vacation once more arrived; and, after school closed, we just disappeared. Jeepers, the year must have gotten the better of us, for now we were reciting poetry. Can you imagine?

It was grand returning to school again to see old friends and teachers. But studying—that is another story!

This was our great year! Miss Bloomfield and Mr. Horwitz organized our class. Not many came to our first meeting, but it was a beginning, and most of us profited by it.

Do you remember our first campaign and the posters of the various candidates displayed throughout the school? Election Day came at last. The results:

JOHN PAPIANNI—President	JOE MARANO—Treasurer
DOTTE SINCK—Vice-President	ELEANOR YASHULEWICZ—Historian
EVELYN OLKO—Secretary

St. Patrick's Day arrived; and, along with the wearing of the green, came our first dance. Since it was a complete success, although the boys did sort of hold the wall up, we were inspired to greater affairs. No one was surprised, therefore, when we were once more successful in an attempt to entertain our audience in our famous Amateur Hour.

Finally, the second term was upon us and the necessity of selecting officers also. The campaign, which was an exciting one, culminated in the election of the following:

EDWARD THOMPSON—President	BARNEY CAPRIGLIONE—Treasurer
EVELYN OLKO—Secretary

Smash! Bang! "That-a-boy, Joe," echoed from all sides of the auditorium one afternoon. Impossible! Well, the truth of the matter was that our class was presenting its Boxing Matches. The girls screamed! The boys boxed! It was a hectic afternoon!

Spirits were high, marks were low; but we plodded on and on. We laid plans for our Prom, which, because of the War, was to be sponsored by both the Senior B's and our own class. The fact that we were Junior A's did not mar our pleasure, for the evening ended all too soon.

As Seniors, we should have felt terribly learned; but somehow we were still unchanged in spirit. We did realize, however, as only Seniors can realize, how momentous our problems were. During our Senior B term we were ruled by the firm and capable hands of

BARNEY CAPRIGLIONE—President

NORMAN KURTZ—Treasurer

DOTTE SINCK—Vice-President

TERRY FORLENZA—Historian

ELIZABETH WOODS—Secretary

Yes, sir, big business was certainly the order of the day! Our dimes reluctantly found their way into the hands of our Treasurer, who bellowed, "Pay up or else!"

We day-dreamed through the day of our Senior "Rec", and I believe we fell asleep that night with the firm realization that we were Seniors B's at last.

Other activities then held our attention. One can scarcely forget our blank look of amazement and disbelief at the wonders we witnessed during our Hour of Magic. To be sure, the dance which followed was a gala affair. Can you believe it? The boys really left their beloved walls and danced with the girls!

Our rings finally arrived, and were the teachers shocked to see the vast number of hands raised that day! Why? Our rings gleamed—and the answer was usually wrong anyway.

Before we knew it, we were Senior A's; and it was our turn to recognize the Senior B's. My, my, how we did flutter here and there that day! We were subdued just long enough to hear our President address our guests assembled in the gym.

In spite of our work on The Torch and preparations for the Recognition, we did manage to find time for our final class election, at which we elected:

BARNEY CAPRIGLIONE—President

JOSEPH MARANO—Treasurer

DOTTE SINCK—Vice-President

TERRY FORLENZA—Historian

ELIZABETH WOODS—Secretary

Soon our high school life will end, but we have already prepared a special place for it in our hall of memory—a place of honor and of distinction. We await with awed anticipation our Senior A Dance and our Commencement. Then, along with our boys who are leaving to serve our country, we shall bid thee farewell, dear East Side High School.

CLASS WILL

WE, the Class of June, 1945, of East Side High School, City of Newark, County of Essex, and State of New Jersey, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make this, our last will and testament, in the following manner:

I. TO OUR BELOVED FACULTY:

1. To Mr. Horwitz we leave the honored position of President of the Blemel Hair Tonic Company. (Keep 'em combin'.)
2. To Mr. Grubel we leave an automatic bottle washer, so that it will no longer be necessary for him to issue appeals for volunteer bottle washers.
3. To Mrs. Leitch we leave several dolls the size of a small child for use in demonstrating child care, so that she need no longer use senior girls as dummies. (Even Chris Di Leo isn't that small!)
4. To Miss Lewis we leave all the best that the future may provide. We extend to her our most sincere wishes for happiness and the best of everything.
5. To Mr. Stone we leave an Algebra IV class that knows a little algebra.

II. TO THE LOWER CLASSMEN:

1. To the Freshmen we leave our books, teachers, Mr. Lumb and his cut slips, Miss Higgins and her able advice, but most of all our best wishes.
2. To the Sophomores we leave two years of sweat plus many unforgettable experiences.
3. To the Juniors, who are future Commandos, we leave Mr. Guarino, who will make of them what he made of us. (We're all 1A.)
4. To the Seniors we leave one of our most cherished possessions, the Torch Room. May they have the many splendid times we have had there, working (?) on The Torch.

III. TO THE EDITORS OF THE TORCH:

To the editors we leave aspirin and headache powders. They will need them both after toiling over the yearbook.

IV. TO THE MEMBERS OF THE STUDENT BODY WE LEAVE:

Johnny Anello's saxophone
Clare Bogdanowicz's boistrousness
Anthony Capriglione's ambition
Barney Capriglione's popularity
Chris Di Leo's flirting instinct
Anne Gennaro's neatness.
Helen Golej's helpfulness.
Madeline Knott's walk.
Helen Kowalski's forgetfulness
Norman Kurtz's intriguing look
Ray Levandowski's yo-yo
Lolita Lozano's Southern accent.
Julius Manthey's industry
Joe Marano's never-ending wit
Teddy MacNeill's beautiful voice
Lillian McNitsky's famous laugh.
John Migneovich's snappy remarks
Angie Moncho's lovely smile.
Arnie Pasternak's "Brooklyn"
Frank Pethalski's laziness.
Doris Pierre's self-reliance
Mike Placitella's pleasantness
Walterette Rendziniak's shyness
Irene Romak's all-round cuteness
Robert Ruff's intelligence
Dottie Sinck's vitality
Frances Slenis's continuous chattering.
Willie Tamburro's troubles
Eddie Thompson's modest ways
Ann Tomko's jolliness
Eleanor Volages's temper
Vera Wagner's loquaciousness.
Lizzy Woods' beautiful artistry.
Eleanor Yashulewicz's swagger
Blanche Zabrodski's ability

V. TO MR. WILMOT, MISS ERBACHER, AND MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY:

To Mr. Wilmot we leave our sincerest thanks for all he has done to make our stay at East Side a pleasant and beneficial one. Our four years have been truly happy and the thanks we leave to Mr. Wilmot, Miss Erbacher, and all the members of the Faculty are both hearty and sincere.

We do hereby appoint our principal, Mr. William V. Wilmot, the executor of this, our last will and testament, in witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seal in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.

THE CLASS OF JUNE, 1945.

STARDUST GUIDE

LILLIAN McNITSKY

John Anello's turning into a musical softie, and you can blame it all on a dynamic old gent called Paul Rocke.

A few weeks ago, when Johnny was tooting at the Paladium, Rocke dropped in with a group of friends to watch the jive maestro do his fancy stuff on the saxophone and watch Williette Raab beat it out on the ivories.

As the music blasted louder and louder, his friends noticed that Rocke shuddered. Concerned about his sensitive eardrums, they inquired if he wished to leave. He remained motionless in his chair.

During the intermission, Rocke suddenly rose. Marching up to Anello, he casually introduced himself. "Your music, I love it," he said; "but, if I may offer an opinion, your band is a trifle too loud and your vocalist is drowned out."

Did Johnny toss him a you-tend-your-knitting-and-I'll-tend-to-mine answer? He did not! He was so bowled over by the master's interest that the next day he rushed out and added ten new strings to his orchestra.

His vocalist, Melody Lane, formerly Sonia Kaligo, is grateful for this transformation, but definitely!

MINUTE GOSSIP

Rosa Lee Clanton, Newark's own actress, has hired Blanche Zabrodski to paint an oil portrait for a gift to ????

The trailer which Lillian Wojciak, Eleanor Yashulewicz, and Carmella Damiano used on dancing tours is now used as a game room in Lil's backyard. The following sign hangs above the door: "Be it ever so stationary, there's no place like home."

Theodora MacNeill, who retired from the stage for a long-needed rest, will return to sing "Ava Maria" in a play written by Anna Petolino.

The famous Ballet Master, Mr. X., walked into an embarrassing situation when he checked in at the Paramount to stage the dance for a new musical. His wife, Barbara Maciejewski, and his former fiancée, Louise Saragino, are under contract to the same theater and are working on the same stage.

WOMAN'S WORLD

PETER ANDREATCH

The Ladies Home Town News Club, of which Grace Addotta is president, will hold an afternoon social on the twenty-first of July. The refreshment committee of the club—Ethel Corbett, Louise Alliegro, and Marie Maskewich—will have charge and should be seen for tickets.

Cooking classes opened yesterday with Margaret Terninko and Irene Lisowicz demonstrating some helpful pointers on that delicate subject, food. There were a large number of women present. Among those whose faces were familiar were Catherine Libertazzo, Kores Guidelly, and Madeline Knott. The class lasted about two hours, which gave everyone a chance to try the recipes originated by Jane Stepniak and Victoria Franzo.

Bang Up News

STEPHEN DRENKOWSKI

Chemists Mike Placitella and Olga Stachura with Chemical Engineers Robert Ruff and Nick DeBartolomeis hit a new high yesterday when their laboratory blew up.

Aid was sent by a plane designed by Arthur Opanowicz and piloted by Frank Pethalski with John Reeve as radio man.

Air Stewardess Evelyn Olko assisted the nurses and doctors who were sent to help the injured. Nurses Lynn Halvorsen, Frances Warzocha, and Sonia Morsewich had a little trouble with air sickness, so Dietitian Hakucha was asked for advice.

After recovering, Sonia Morsewich insisted that she could pilot a plane and wanted to prove it. Red Cross Workers Jean Arena, Eleanor Volage, and Grace Drew finally persuaded her not to attempt it on an errand of mercy.

The All-Out Ball was the event of the month, with fame of every magnitude crowding the four walls. Models Lillian Cisco, Mary Farbaniec, and Helen Kowalski, dressed in the creations of Elizabeth Woods and Mary Sayer, drew covetous glances. And, of course, Comedian Linda Alves; Poet Bernard Nayokas; the two buyers of Newark's fashions, Regina Tanski and Mary Malanda; Skaters Helen Orzechowski and Veronica Dubiel; Jean Tomkewich; and just about every one in town was present.

All Around

STEPHEN DRENKOWSKI

Anthony Cuozzo, manager of the New York Yankees, announced today that Outfielder Rocco Nobile turned down an offer of $10,000 from the Yanks. Nobile insisted that he would rather play with Brooklyn.

An up and coming minor league pitcher who will be with the Cardinals next fall is Joe Zinn.

One of the most powerful infields in major league today is that of the St. Louis Browns, consisting of a small but dangerous catcher Mike Behul, and third baseman, Bob Elliott. A snappy combination at second and short stop is Mario Alaimo and Peter DiPetta. All four are batting in the three hundreds.

Business Watch Word

EDITH McCLINTOCK

On Monday, Josephine Pacella and Margaret Ditzel are opening their Private Secretarial School for summer classes. Irene Zatorski, Jennie Zaborowski, and Ann Rispoli are employed as their school clerks. Good luck to all!

Walter Dolochek has gone into partnership with Michael Piontek, who is known to be a good salesman. Their Real Estate Agency is doing extremely well, so they have employed a competent bookkeeper, Casper Pendola, who has assured them that he is a good cashier. He is at his best when it comes to subtraction and has guaranteed to keep the books straight. He must have been a student of the great mathematician, Matilda Codella. Doris Pierre, Eleanor De John, and Lucy Nunes are the Agency's telephone operators.

Jean Kempcznski is a very brave person. She is thinking of invading the History field.

Miss Gilbert's popularity as a gym instructress probably inspired Charles Lippey and John Papianni to become Physical Education teachers.

If you should happen to meet Dorothy Sinck or Edith McClintock, please be careful to speak correctly. They are in the English Department at Rutgers University.

Evidently Hazel Davis and Helen Minatee are excellent elementary teachers. They both have dozens of apples brought them by devoted pupils.

Have you seen any of the many advertisements which read, "The Pomaszczynski School for Pec-Yool-Yuh Persons?"

Remarkable, what? how East Side has contributed to the advancement of civilization!
